

power direct

energy for business

What is in my business energy bill?

The wholesale cost of gas or electricity makes up less than half of the amount of your overall bill.

35%

41%

18% | 20.6%

Supplier operating costs account for around 18% of your electricity bill and 20.6% of your gas bill. It includes the supplier's operational costs, including billing management, customer service functions, and cost of sales. This area also includes any brokerage costs applicable.

Other direct costs account for around 1.3% of your electricity bill and 1% of your gas bill

27%

Network costs include all the costs to transport the energy from its source to its eventual point of consumption. These charges make up about 27% of your bill.

18.3%

Approximately 18.3% of your electricity bill and 1.4% of your gas bill is paid by the supplier to the government to cover environmental and social obligation charges, climate change levy and VAT.

1.4%

0.4%

The supplier's pre-tax margin makes up about 0.4% of your electricity bill and 9% of your gas bill

9%

For more information on what's impacting the costs on your energy bill, read the latest news on our website